

Lynne Davidson

Lynne has been an integral team member of MECC for over 15 years. Prior to MECC Lynne worked for several international corporations in positions that required management of travel and sales. She manages one of our top clients with their speaker and educational content for continuing education. Lynne has built a career on the essential facets of successful event management—connecting people, and seeing the big picture while also mastering the fine details. She assists clients to strategically realize their goals with creative solutions. Her work ethics creates a strong relationship with clients and vendors. Lynne has strategically planned and coordinated events ranging from high-profile events and annual conferences, grand opening celebrations, and international symposia. By working closely with diverse teams, Lynne executes exceptional events that meet business objectives and exceed expectations.