

Connie Cantillo

Connie brings to MECC an extensive experience with more than 40 years as an Executive Assistant for high level executives of worldwide well-known companies in different industries such as oil & gas, alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, pharmaceutical, non-profit, and software among others. Within her scope of responsibilities, she was in charge of the organization and execution of events and corporate meetings held locally, domestically and abroad as well as the management of top executives' travel, the organization and management of high level board meeting agendas, preparation of reports, presentations, and compliance reporting among other duties. Her experience, skills and attention to detail are key in her new role as Executive Meeting Assistant at MECC.