

Kimberly Heath

Kimberly has been with MECC for the past 4 years. She manages and coordinates our conference speakers and exhibits initiatives. Her past experiences prior to coming aboard with MECC include: manager of Lanier Flight Center in Atlanta, Ga., handling drug testing programs, all FAA compliance regulations, managed schedules for flight instructors for over 250 students, FAA test proctor for all levels of pilots licenses and recertification. Organized managed all company events for business development. Kimberly has also managed several political events as the main event planner.