

Veda Bills

Veda is an Account Specialist. She graduated from the Arkansas School of Mathematics & Sciences; went on from there to further her education and received an Accounting Technology: Associate of Applied Business (AAB).

She has worked as an executive assistant and consultant to the CEO's of major corporations for over 15 years. She has been trained by several international coaches in leadership and business.

Her knowledge, skill, and experiences have equipped her with the ability to communicate effectively in order to set and meet goals, and delegate responsibilities.

Veda's intrapersonal skills, innovative thinking, and engaging yet professional manner, combined with her dedication to excellence is what will be the keys to her success as MECC's Conference Registrar, Communications & Marketing Assistant